HELLO AND WELCOME

First things first: congratulations! If you're reading this, you're planning something pretty amazing – and I'm genuinely honoured to be part of this moment in your exciting journey together.

Choosing a wedding photographer is a big deal (I know it can feel overwhelming), so thank you for considering me. This little guide is here to walk you through everything – from how I work, to what's included, to the kind of experience you can expect.

Hopefully, it answers lots of the questions buzzing around your head right now. More than anything, I want you to know this: I'm here for you and aim to make this process as easy and stress free as possible.

I take the time to get to know what really matters to you – not just the pretty stuff, but the moments and people that mean the most. Your wedding day is about you two, and my job is to support you in having the absolute best time, while I quietly capture it all – the real, the joyful, the beautifully unposed.

So take your time, have a browse, and if it all feels like a good fit, I'd love to have a chat.

Let's make some magic together.

MEET YOUR PHOTOGRAPHER

Hey, I'm Ryan — wedding photographer, storyteller, and calming presence on your big day.

Photography isn't just my job; it's my passion and my way of preserving life's most meaningful moments. If you want honest, beautiful photos that feel like you — not a posed photoshoot — you're in the right place.

My journey began with a backpack and trips through Europe and Southeast Asia, where I fell in love with capturing everyday magic and new cultures. That passion shaped how I see the world and tell stories through my lens.

Back home, I honed my craft — studying with the British Academy of Photography, receiving my HNC and being named as their Photographer of the Year in 2022. I have continued my love for education with the intention of consistently delivering the best results for my couples.

With nearly a decade behind the lens and three years focused on weddings, I've built this business from the ground up, photographing more than 70 weddings, each one full of real emotion and unique stories.

My style is natural, candid, and timeless. I take time to get to know you so your photos feel authentic and true. I blend into the background, hype you up like movie stars, and I may even join you on the dance floor for a boogie!

I focus on what's real — the laughs, tears, and all the in-between moments that make your day uniquely yours. I'm here to make the whole process relaxed, fun, and completely tailored to you.

If you want an experienced, friendly face who captures your day exactly as it felt — full of love and laughter — let's chat. I'd love to be part of your story.

"Ryan photographed our wedding and was absolutely amazing and understanding when things didn't go exactly to plan! I couldn't be happier with the photos. Such a lovely guy and a joy to have at our big day. Would recommend without hesitation!"

THE EXPERIENCE

From the first point of contact to the moment your wedding album is in your hands, every part of this journey is about discovering who you are as a couple and what means the most to you—so your final gallery feels like a true reflection of your love story, beautifully and intimately told.

Pre-Wedding Communication

Every wedding journey begins with a personal touch. To kick things off, we'll connect over Zoom or by phone. This initial conversation gives us the chance to meet, build a genuine connection, and dive into the details of your big day. It's also the perfect time to ask any questions you may have—whether they're about photography, delivery timelines, or anything else that comes to mind.

Booking and Planning

Once your deposit is paid and your date is secured, the planning process officially begins. You'll receive regular check-in emails to ensure everything stays on track and nothing is missed. If your package includes an engagement shoot and a venue visit, we'll schedule them as well. The photoshoot is a great opportunity to meet in person, talk more about your wedding, and most importantly, help you feel at ease in front of the camera. It's especially helpful for anyone who feels a bit camera-shy—it's all about building confidence in a relaxed, no pressure environment. Then, about four weeks before the wedding, we'll have one final Zoom call to confirm all the important details.

On the Wedding Day

When the big day arrives, I'll typically join you about two hours before you leave for the ceremony, depending on your chosen package. This time allows me to capture all the beautiful details—your dress, suit, shoes and invites—as well as candid moments, hair and makeup, and special group photos. From there, I'll be with you throughout the entire celebration, from the ceremony right through to the evening party and dance- floor fun, documenting every joyful moment.

Post-Wedding Delivery

Within 48 hours of your wedding, you'll receive a sneak peek of 20+ images—as a little preview to relive the magic. Your full, professionally edited gallery will be ready within eight weeks and delivered via a secure, password-protected online gallery for you to enjoy and share with family and friends at no extra cost.

THE BIG DAY- A STRESS FREE TIMELINE

Here's some advice on how to best enjoy your day without worrying about the little things.

Details & Bridal Prep

For your morning preparations, gather all of your meaningful items—dress, shoes, jewellery, perfume, flowers, heirlooms etc—together in one spot before I arrive. This helps the morning flow smoothly and ensures nothing gets missed. Set up hair and makeup near a window if possible—natural light is key for soft, flattering photos. Keep one area of the room tidy for clean, distraction-free shots.

Once I'm there, your bridesmaids might help fluff the dress or join in for a few relaxed moments like a Prosecco toast or matching PJ's. These lighthearted bits help tell the full story of your morning. Try to be in your dress about an hour before you leave. If you're planning first looks or group photos beforehand, allow some extra time—it'll help everything feel calm and not rushed.

Groom Prep

Before I arrive, be dressed up to your shirt and trousers—save the waistcoat and jacket for the finishing touches. I'll capture those classic getting-ready shots as you button up, adjust your tie, and pin buttonholes. If you've got any meaningful items—heirloom watches, cufflinks, a special gift etc—have them ready. Planning a toast, cigars, whiskey hip flasks or something else? Let me know so I can capture it all. Groom prep is usually relaxed and full of laughter. I'll keep things natural—no awkward posing, just real, memorable moments with your closest mates.

Ceremony

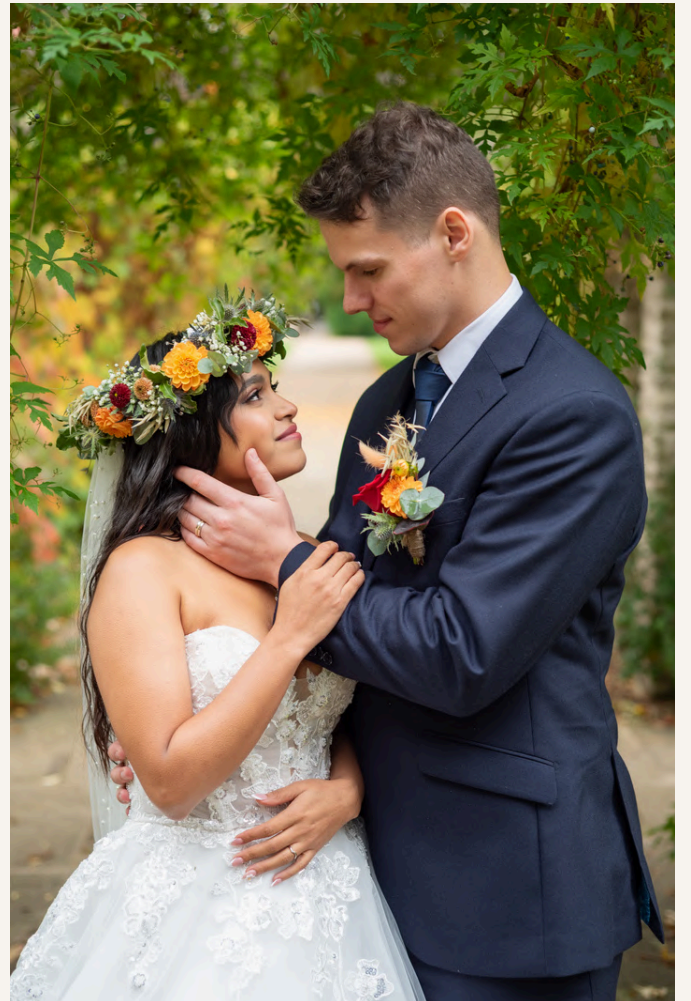

I'll quietly capture the key moments—your vows, the first kiss, and all the emotional reactions in between. If your ceremony's in a church or similar venue, I'll check in with the vicar to work respectfully around any restrictions. I always recommend an unplugged ceremony—guests stay fully present, and your photos stay phone-free. If lighting is low, I may use subtle flash to keep images crisp and atmospheric. When it's time for the kiss, hold it a little longer—and if it feels right, go back in for a second! On your way back down the aisle, smile, laugh, cheer, maybe do a dip or another kiss. This is your moment and you only do this once, so enjoy it and make the most of it!

Group Photos & Couple Shoot

After the ceremony, we'll go straight in to the confetti shot. I'll get everyone set up— you just walk through and embrace the chaos! Let me know in advance if you plan to stop for a kiss. Next comes the big group photo (if you want one), then onto smaller groups. Around 10 is ideal, 20 is on the larger side—more group photos can eat into your couple shoot time. Having a group list and a designated person to gather people keeps things moving quickly. For your couple shoot, we'll slip away for two 15-20 minute sessions—one before dinner, one after, when the light is soft and golden. If you're changing outfits, the second session is perfect to show it off. This is your chance to pause, breathe, and just enjoy being together—these often become the most treasured photos of the day.

First Dance & Evening

Your first dance is a special moment—whether it's slow, fun, or somewhere in between, I'll be there to capture every step and smile. Planning a twirl or a lift? Let me know so I can be ready. When the dance floor fills, I'll shift to capturing the energy—big hugs, and wild moves. And don't stress about the steps, what matters most is the love between you both. Enjoy it all.

FAQ'S

When will we receive our photos?

You'll get a sneak peek of 10–20 photos within 48 hours of the wedding, and your full gallery will be ready within 8 weeks.

Can we request specific photos or poses?

Absolutely! If you have any must-have shots or poses you would like to try, let me know. I'll also guide you through the couple shoot with relaxed prompts so it all feels natural.

How does the payment plan work?

To secure the date, 1/4 of the full amount is required as a deposit. The rest is due two weeks before the big day—you can pay in stages or all at once, whatever works for you.

Where are you based, where do you cover?

I'm based in Hastings, East Sussex, and cover weddings across the UK and abroad. Please note- Travel fees may apply for distant locations.

When should we book?

As soon as your date is confirmed, I recommend getting in touch, then you can rest easy knowing your photographer is booked. I typically book 12–18 months in advance and only take on one wedding per date—so don't wait too long to reach out and secure your spot.

Do you recommend having two photographers?

Yes—having two photographers means we can fully capture both partners preparations, cover the ceremony from multiple angles, and get even more candid moments of your favourite people throughout the day. It's peace of mind knowing that no moment goes undocumented and nothing gets missed.

What if you're sick or can't make it to our wedding?

I have photographed over 70 weddings and have not missed a single one yet, and have no intention of ever doing so. However, in the very unlikely event that I can't make it, I have a network of photographers that I know personally who would step in on the day.

We would give Ryan 10 stars if we could! He was amazing with us and saw our vision instantly. He made us feel comfortable and our friends and family adored him as our own. The best decision you can make - other than saying I do - is to have Ryan capture your special day. It takes a special person to capture the love and excitement of the day and he is just that.

We love him dearly.
